

MENACE TO THE WOMAN'S SANITY

Protest Against Use of the Manikin in the Bonine Trial.

DEVICE IS CRUEL

It is Denounced as a Bloody Relic of the Middle Ages.

MRS. BONINE NERVOUS

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Reference to mediaeval barbarism and comparison with the case of Mrs. Maybrick form features of a protest formulated yesterday by Chicagoans against methods chosen in the prosecution of Mrs. Lola Ida Bonine, now on trial in Washington for the murder of James S. Ayres, Jr.

A Species of Torture
Members of the bar and men prominent in other departments of professional effort object to the spectacle of confronting an accused woman with a tragic counterpart of the man for whose murder she is arraigned. The presentation of such a manikin in the courtroom is described as a species of torture that might properly be regarded as a relic of the middle ages.

"The signers of this protest believe," runs the paper to which a number of Chicagoans attached their signatures, "that some of the methods used in prosecuting this case in the city of Washington call to mind forcibly the Maybrick case in London. Whether Mrs. Bonine, now on trial in Washington, D. C., is innocent or not is a question of facts, and should so be determined by law.

Say Woman's Sanity is Menaced
"In the middle ages, a period of semi-barbarism, when a prisoner did not reply to the court to suit his prejudices the prisoner was tortured, until, insane with pain, a suitable answer was brought forth. The method resorted to in Mrs. Bonine's trial is to continually confront her with a gruesome, cadaverous manikin of the dead body of Ayres, most artfully and horribly made. There are many, many innocent women, that such a sight and process would drive hopelessly insane. Is it more or less brutal than the rack of the middle ages? What will be the opinion of the civilized world?"

Viewed From a Legal Standpoint
Former State's Attorney Joel M. Langenecker took the stand that the introduction of the manikin was improper from a legal standpoint.

"It seems to me that the introduction of anything into the courtroom that will have an effect upon the minds of the jurors or witnesses is improper," he said. "It is a disgrace to our latter day civilization that a woman should be subjected to such a strain. Her mind may be ruined if steps are not taken by the court to relieve it from the ordeal."

Bloodstained Undershirt
Washington, Nov. 23.—For the first time since the opening of the trial Mrs. Lola Ida Bonine showed signs of mental disturbance. The bloodstained undershirt which James S. Ayres had worn on the night he was murdered was presented as evidence, and the prisoner, though she tried to look at it with unconcern, shuddered and was seized with a violent attack of trembling.

Manikin for the Jury
The jury in the case of Mrs. Bonine will view an exact reproduction of the corpse of the man the defendant is accused of murdering. It is said to be the most gruesome exhibit ever used in the prosecution of a criminal case in Washington. It is an exact reproduction in papier-mache of the body of James Seymour Ayres, Jr., the murdered man, as it was found in his room at the Kenmore hotel. The manikin with bullet holes gaped through the painted sides, so tinted as to resemble human flesh will be given a prominent place in the courtroom.

BIG STRIDES BEING MADE IN TRADE; ENORMOUS BUSINESS IN ALL LINES

Few Idle Wheels Found in the Country—People Have Ample Reason to Observe Thanksgiving.

New York, Nov. 23.—"Never before in the history of the United States was there such a great reason for a day of national Thanksgiving. This country has made unprecedented strides toward a position of international supremacy, not only in commerce but also in finance. To a marked degree business enterprises have proved successful. An idle wheel in mills or factories is the exception, while labor is so well employed at high wages that consumptive demands sustain market values of all staple commodities. Transporting facilities have been unable to keep pace with the nation's requirements, many complaining of tardy deliveries, which alone act as a brake on commercial progress," according to R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade, which issues today. Continuing the report says:

"By closing lake navigation lower temperatures will relieve the railway situation, thousands of cars being restored to inland traffic. This same factor of seasonable weather stimulates retail dealings and prompt col-res, Jr., the murdered man, as it was found in his room at the Kenmore hotel. The manikin with bullet holes gaped through the painted sides, so tinted as to resemble human flesh will be given a prominent place in the courtroom.

It will be placed on a bier covered with a whole sheet, and while in full view of the jury will be at all times directly in front of the frail little woman charged with the murder of Ayres. The measurements and proportions of the body or manikin were taken from the dead body of young Ayres. The head is perfectly formed. Every mark, stain, or bruise and peculiarly found upon the original is reproduced and all appearances it is a real corpse. The limbs of the body are wired like those of a skeleton, so that it can be made to act and assume any position possible in a human body. The figure is regarded as a splendid masterpiece.

WORK OF BADGER HUMANE SOCIETY

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 23.—The Wisconsin Humane society will hold its twenty-second annual meeting next Tuesday evening at the Plankinton house. During the evening Rollin B. HEAVY BACKERS FOR GENEVA ROAD READY WITH A MILLION DOLLARS

Surveyors Are At Work On The New Line From Milwaukee—Incorporators Mean Business And Will Push Work On The Project.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 23.—Pittsburg capitalists have agreed to put a million dollars, or more, if necessary, into the new electric trolley line between Milwaukee and Lake Geneva, and the incorporators, George W. Peck, W. H. Churchill and John F. Donovan, are enthusiastic over the proposition.

The line covering the forty miles between the city limits and Geneva will be nearly straight, and will pass through several towns which have never had direct communication with Milwaukee. The surveyors began work at the Geneva end, and have covered about half of the route, which it is the intention of the company to buy outright.

No franchises have yet been asked from Geneva or from the towns along the route. A speed of thirty miles an hour is contemplated, making the time consumed for the trip one hour and thirty minutes. The Milwaukee ordinance provides that the work on the proposed line shall be begun within six months of its passage, and that the city line must be completed and have cars running in eighteen months.

"Our people mean business," said the incorporators. "The representative of the Pittsburg capitalists has been here some time and has had a number of conferences with us, and the surveyor has about one-half of the line surveyed."

"We should have many such trolley lines in our state. There are too many necessities for reverting to the ancient custom of using a stage coach, and if our new line is the success we anticipate we stand ready to build others. Why, in New England states the trolley runs everywhere, and in our own state the trolley line from here to Waukesha runs between two railroads and still pays."

RAILWAYS TO GIVE NO MORE PASSES

Reach an Ironclad Agreement in Chicago—Politicians Must Pay a Like the Rest.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Executive officials of all railroads east of Chicago and of the steamship lines connecting with the railroads have entered into an iron clad agreement to abolish all forms of free transportation on Jan. 1, 1902.

A resolution almost as broad as could possibly be drawn has been passed by the Trunk Line association, and has been concurred in by individual vote of the lines forming the Central passenger association. The abolition of passes applies to all classes of persons who have been given those favors in the past with the exception of the employees of the various roads, who may ride free on the respective lines at the discretion of the officials, and with the further exception of officers and employees of fast freight lines. So sweeping are the resolutions that no exception has been made regarding politicians or members of legislatures or of congress.

VON HATZFELDT DEAD.

Ex-German Ambassador Suddenly Passes Away at the London Embassy.

London, Nov. 23.—Count von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, who a few days ago retired from the post of German ambassador to Great Britain, died at the embassy in the morning. Count von Hatzfeldt returned from a holiday six weeks ago and since that time had only been able to leave his house once or twice and then in a bath chair. He suffered greatly from asthma, and on Saturday his malady developed into congestion of the lungs. From this attack Count von Hatzfeldt never rallied, but died peacefully this morning in the presence of his wife and son. He was conscious up to last night, when he received the last sacrament of the church and then lapsed into a state of coma. His body will be buried in the family vault in Germany.

FRESHMEN SEVERELY HAZED.

Seniors at Western Reserve University Have Fun With Juniors.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 23.—After a football mass-meeting of Western Reserve University seniors last night three freshmen were seized and severely hazed. The freshmen were compelled to crawl through an aisle formed by their elders, on hands and knees, offer prayers with uplifted hands, yell like wild men and denounce their class. Then they were compelled to run a gauntlet of the seniors, each of whom had a large slab of wood which was used with effect on the unfortunate freshmen. One of the trio who stood the ordeal like a stoic was released, a second broke through the ranks and escaped and the third was hauled to a stone quarry and lowered into a hole. The hazers disappeared before the authorities could learn who they were.

New York, Nov. 23.—When the officers who compose the court which is trying Col. Meade, United States marine corps, at the navy yard, Brooklyn, resumed their investigations today, Capt. Benjamin A. Fuller, assistant judge advocate, who was judge advocate at the court of inquiry held in the navy yard last July, testified to what had taken place there. On cross-examination the witness stated that once when he was on duty at Boston navy yard Major Lauchheimer came to his (Capt. Fuller's) room and said he had just come from the Puritan club after closing it up. "What was Col. Meade's condition? Was he sober or tight?" asked Lawyer Semple. "He was under the influence of liquor," replied the witness.

News of the attack on the city of Panama itself is expected hourly, as the Liberal forces are within two miles of the city. The Liberals here claim that General Alban's forces were completely routed at Chame, the General and a few of his soldiers escaping.

A telegram from Panama says seventy-five of Alban's forces arrived here at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on two sailing boats, and that Alban himself and fifty of his men arrived at 7 o'clock last evening. Alban left Panama three days ago with a force of several hundred men. It is also claimed by the Liberals that another division of General Alban's army was routed by General

COMING FEAST WILL BE COSTLY

Thanksgiving Dinner Will Tax the Purse of the Public.

ADVANCE IN PRICES

Poultry, Meats, Groceries and Confections Advanced to Fancy Figures.

ALL FOODS HIGHER

The Thanksgiving dinner of 1901 bids fair to be the most expensive of any in which Janesvillites of the present generation have yet indulged.

Beginning almost with the year prices of cereals, canned goods, fruits and meats have steadily advanced until they have now reached a point where the householder of limited means finds most of them prohibitive. The great so-called middle class is faced to face with the necessity of adjusting its appetite to foods of the cheaper variety.

All Foods Are Higher
This is by no means an easy task for there are comparatively few articles of food that have not materially advanced in price over the figures of last year and preceding years. Even such standard portions of the average man's diet as rolled oats, beans, meal and buckwheat have followed in the trail of advancing prices.

These conditions readily account for the general falling off in sales of which jobbers and retailers are complaining and explain why the market for what may be termed Thanksgiving goods is listless.

The great majority of people, dealers say, are buying only for actual necessities. In doing this they find they are called upon to make a larger and deeper hole in the family purse than was necessary in years gone by, hence their proneness to dispense with those things that now, because of enhanced prices, come under the head of luxuries.

Comparisons Show Increase
The following are comparative tables of prices of some of the leading articles of food:

	1900.	1901.
Rolls oats, per lb.....	24	24
White meal, per lb.....	11 1/2	11 3/4
Marrow beans, per lb.....	3	4
Poa beans, per lb.....	4	4 1/2
Apples, per bushel.....	18	22
Honey, per lb.....	18	22
Butter, per lb.....	25	25 to 31
Eggs, per doz.....	18 to 20	20 to 25
Sugar, per lb.....	16	18
Peas, per bushel.....	22	30
Potatoes, per bushel.....	25	31
Apples, per bushel.....	25	31
Potatoes, per bushel.....	40 to 50	70 to 85

In meats a big jump in prices has taken place since early summer. The figures given below are for April and May and the present time:

	April and May	Present
Porterhouse steaks.....	17 to 20	20 to 30
Round steaks.....	12 to 14	15 to 18
Chuck steaks.....	10 to 11	12
Roast beef.....	8 to 10	10 to 12
Lamb chops.....	14 to 16	18 to 19
Mutton.....	8 to 10	10 to 12
Lamb, hindquarters.....	10 1/2	12 1/2
Pork.....	10 1/2	12 1/2
Veal chops.....	16 to 18	18 to 20
Cutlets.....	22	23 to 24

If the figures quoted are compared with those of two or three years ago they will for the most part show a still greater percentage of increase, for 1900 was by no means a year of falling prices.

Experts figure that a dollar last year would have gone nearly one-third farther than at the present time, and that its purchasing power, owing to increased prices, has been decreased nearly 40 per cent when compared with 1898 and 1899.

BANQUET GIVEN BY JUNIOR CLASS

The Brilliant Social Event at the East Side Odd Fellows Hall Last Evening.

Without doubt the most brilliant social event ever given by a high school organization was the banquet and dancing party given by the Junior class in honor of their football team at East Side Odd Fellows hall last evening. It was an elaborate affair in every detail and not the slightest hitch occurred to mar the charming perfection of the occasion. The guests included about seventy-five members of the class. Rev. and Mrs. Robert C. Denison, Supt. H. C. Buell and Prof. William Norris. The company assembled at six o'clock the guests being received by Alice Harper, Helen Estes, Stowe Lovejoy and Kramer Doty, who served as a reception committee for the class. The committees stood in a handsomely arranged corner in the north-west corner of the room. A graceful drape of purple and white formed a canopy above the cosy chairs and the oriental rugs and the attractive retreat was further beautified by an immense bouquet of great white chrysanthemums.

The entire hall was a mass of purple and white, the class colors making a most effective decoration.

Much credit for the artistic decorations is due Josephine Fenton, Lulu Mae Donald, Stowe Lovejoy, Harold Hall and Elizabeth McKee, the members of the decorating committee, and a corps of efficient assistants from the Juniors.

The dining hall to which the company repaired at 6:20 o'clock was also beautifully decorated, drapings of purple and white and a pendant football being arranged above the long tables which were strewn with English violets and fern leaves. A white carnation lay at each plate and the fresh sweetness of the violets and the spicy fragrance of the carnations filled the room with sweet incense.

The supper was dainty and appetizing one, provided in the most part by the members of the class.

The banquet committee, consisting of Leah Rowe, Winifred Fifield and Ida Stoddard had charge of the supper and Alice Harper, of the finance committee was a valuable assistant.

The following Freshman girls served the supper: Ethel Fifield, Ruth field, Ida Green, Edna Murdoch, Robena Keller, John Galbraith Harvey Reeves, Chester Morse, Victor Whitton and Frank Phelps. The following was the menu:

Chicken Timbales Saratoga Chips
Cold Tongue Rolls
Pickles Sliced Apples Olives
Coffee
Fruit Salad Wafers
Lemon Ice Assorted Cake
Confections

At the close of the supper Elizabeth McKee took charge of the evening's program for a while and she made a charming toastmaster, her introductions being graceful and witty. Words of cordial welcome were spoken in a happy manner by Stowe Lovejoy, president of the class, and the brief and equally happy response was made by Charlie Galbraith, captain of the football team. The members of the class listened with pleasure to an interesting and helpful talk from Rev. Robert C. Denison on "High Ideals," the speaker closing his toast by expressing that next year he would be called upon to congratulate the team on winning the cup.

Toasts in rhyme were given by Josephine Fenton on "The Junior Boys" and by Harold Hall on "The Junior Girls" and both were merry jingles full of jokes on the members of the class, which occasioned much laughter. Supt. H. C. Buell closed the program with a toast on the unique subject "How Much?" in which he combined humor and serious suggestions. He felt that too much could not be expected of such a class as the Juniors and complimented them highly on the spirit which they had shown in their school work and in the outcome of the football games. Miss McKee, the toastmistress, in introducing Supt. Buell, called attention to the fact that the Junior class was proud to be the first school organization to entertain him.

After the toasts, the class gave cheers for the football team, for the other guests of honor, and with the inspiring class yell, the company adjourned from the banquet tables to the dance hall. Here an interesting feature of the evening was held, Miss McKee producing a leather football, which her father G. M. McKee had given her to be presented to the member of the football team lucky enough to secure it. Fifteen ribbons in purple and white hung from the football and as Miss McKee stood in the center each player chose a ribbon and pulled. All came loose save one and that entitled Harry Jones to the prize, which proved to be a fancy box in the shape of a football, filled with choice candy.

Salt Rheum

It may become chronic.
It may cover the body with large, inflamed, burning, itching, scaling patches and cause intense suffering. It has been known to do so.
Do not delay treatment.
Thoroughly cleanse the system of the humors on which this ailment depends and prevent their return.

The medicine taken by Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md., was Hood's Sarsaparilla. She writes: "I had a disagreeable itching on my arms which I concluded was salt rheum. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and in two days felt better. It was not long before I was cured, and I have never had any skin disease since."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. It is positively unequalled for all cutaneous eruptions. Take it.

Later in the evening there was another unique and pleasant diversion, Archie Reid yielding to the entreaties of his classmates and dancing the Highland Fling gracefully for their entertainment.

The committees to which credit is especially due for last evening's great successes, are:

Program Committee—Elizabeth McKee, Myrtle Hayner, Ida Stoddard, Josephine Fenton, Leah Rowe, Irma Keller.

Finance Committee—Kramer Doty, Will Curtis, Fred Wilkerson, Alice Harper.

A Lively Set-To
Two country gentlemen indulged in a lively set-to yesterday afternoon on South River street, but were separated before either had done much damage to the other. One of them was not satisfied with what had already happened, so tackled A. J. Bennes, the second-hand dealer. It took Bennes but a short time to lay his assailant out cold and leave him lying in the street. The man was picked up by a couple of bystanders and carried to the city lock-up, where after much trouble the lock-up keeper was aroused and the man stowed away for the night.

WEST'S MINSTRELS HERE TONIGHT

If the past is any guarantee as to the future, and it generally is in the theatrical business as many an irresponsible manager has been taught by the indifference of the public, then a genuine pleasure must be in store for those who attend the appearance here tonight of William H. West's Big Minstrel Jubilee. Mr. West, from the moment he first established his company as a distinct organization, set before himself certain high ideals which he had long cherished but had never been able to carry out owing to his association with others who were content to follow in the beaten path of Ethiopian comedy. These ideals he has since with every succeeding season approached nearer to realization, and the announcement that he has retained only a few of the greatest hits of last year, has strengthened his already admiral vocal forces, and has added a score of novel specialties, gives promise of a much-to-be-anticipated evening of mirth and delightful melody.

INTEREST CENTERS IN 2 GAMES TODAY

Yale and Harvard in the East, Minnesota and Northwestern in the West

Michigan-Belmont at Ann Arbor. Indiana-Ohio State at Columbus. Knox-Eureka at Eureka. Kansas-Texas State at Lawrence. Notre Dame-Plymouth and Surgeons at South Bend. Yale-Harvard at Cambridge. Dartmouth-Brown at Providence. Cornell-Vermont at Ithaca.

Two games only will command the attention of football enthusiasts today, one in the West and the other in the East. Of these two the annual battle between Yale and Harvard which will be fought over Soldiers Field in Cambridge, is by far the most important, as it will settle the supremacy of the country unless it results in a tie.

The Minnesota-Northwestern game at Marshall Field will be the only one of importance in the West, and to it Chicago gridiron fans will turn as a partial relief from the wordy battle now in progress between the promoters of the rival Thanksgiving day games in this city.

The contest at Cambridge promises to be the greatest battle of the year on any gridiron. Both teams present a record of unbroken victories for the season. West Point's tie with Yale was obtained by a field goal against a touchdown for the blue, which at least gives the New Haven men the right to claim superiority. Both teams have been scored against repeatedly, but Harvard has suffered most in this respect, and no eleven has scored twice in one game against Yale, as Dartmouth did against the crimson one week ago. Yale has allowed its opponents to score fifteen points and Harvard has seen the twenty-four points scored by its opponents. Ten of the points made against Yale were on field goals, while all the points against Harvard were from touchdowns.

Girls Forced to Walk Home

It is stated that a prominent young society lady of this city and a lady friend, who is visiting her made a trip to Milton Junction the other day. While in that large city taking in the sights they saw numerous things that cost money and when they came to start for home they found they had no money to pay their car fare. They had no friends in the city to whom they could appeal for aid, so pluckily started and walked down the railroad track to this city. Both young ladies were tired out with their walk when they reached home and declare that the next time they start out on a pleasure excursion they will buy a round-trip ticket.

Physicians everywhere are disagreeing on the function of the vermiform appendix, the disease of which is appendicitis. Many contend it has no use, others the contrary. Records show that appendicitis is fatal in thousands of cases each year, and yet the whole trouble can be averted by taking Dr. Crane's Quaker Tonic Tablets regularly. Cost fifty cents.

CAUSE OF DEAFNESS

The Most Common Cause Only Recently Discovered

It has been stated on good medical authority that nine-tenths of the cases of deafness are caused from catarrh or from sore throat trouble.

The little tube which leads to the ear from the throat is lined with a sort of velvety structure called the mucous membrane. This membrane is simply a continuation of the mucous membrane lining the throat. When disease of any sort attacks the mucous membrane of the throat it is very liable to extend into the Eustachian tube and up into the ear.

The history of nearly all cases of deafness is like this: A cold is contracted and neglected, other colds are taken, the throat becomes sore and inflamed, which is aggravated by particles of dust and germs from the air. This condition causes the disease to spread into the tube that leads to the ear.

It seems a little far fetched to say that most cases of deafness are caused from catarrh, but it is certainly true, and anyone who has had a severe catarrhal cold must have noticed how the hearing was affected while the cold lasted.

With catarrh sufferers this impairment of hearing becomes chronic and grows worse the longer the catarrh is neglected.

You can cure catarrh and deafness by the regular use of an excellent new preparation called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, composed of antiseptic remedies which act both on the mucous membranes but principally and most effectually on the blood, eliminating the catarrhal poison from the system.

People whose hearing is defective may think it a little remarkable that a simple and harmless tablet would very often remove all traces of deafness, but when it is remembered that catarrh causes the deafness and that the catarrh is easily cured by the regular use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets there is no mystery about it.

If you are subject to nasal catarrh or catarrh of throat, bronchial tubes or catarrh of stomach and liver, the safest and most effective treatment is the new catarrh specific, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package.

Turkey Talk

The last turkey that is to be eaten next Thursday ought to have been killed a week ago last Thursday.

How many young people know how the turkey came by his name? He is not a native of Turkey. He is an American and was never heard of until some years after Columbus made his voyage—not to discover America but to discover a passage westward to India. The idea of such a passage continued uppermost in the minds of the adventurers who continued coming to this continent for 200 years after it was discovered. Every indentation in the coast was hailed as the way probably found at last, and ever river was supposed to lead to the southern seas that wash the shores of China. One navigator sailed the length of the Gulf of Mexico, which he supposed to be this southern sea, and in central America discovered the wild bird since known as the Turkey. He supposed that he had found the western passage to the promised land, and that he was in Turkey. He gave the name of the "Turkey bird" to the noble wild fowl, some of which he captured and took back to Europe, so that has been the name ever since that the Thanksgiving bird is known by.

APPLETON'S IS A STANDARD BOOKTHE UNIVERSAL CYCLOPEDIA
AND ATLAS.

Forty Eminent American Scholars as Departmental Editors—300 Contributors, including 400 College Presidents, ex-Presidents, and Professors—Over 70,000 Subjects.

So long as the world moves its intelligent population must move with it, and those with whom thinking and reading form a part of daily life must have books of reference that tell the story of today as well as the history of yesterday. A good cyclo-paedia has come to be a necessity not only in every public library and every editorial room, but also in the home of every intelligent family. Good cyclopaedias have been made at various times and in various forms; but a cyclopaedia, like a human being, begins to die the year that it is born.
The intelligent publisher recognizes this fact, and gives new life to his books of reference by frequent and careful revision. The latest and best of these appears in Appleton's Universal Cyclopaedia and Atlas, of which a revised edition is now before us. The United States census of 1901 make a large and important part of every cyclopaedia, which without these figures is now ten years old.

In this revision the population figures and statistical matter developed in the United States census have been separated into proper sections and placed in the articles where the reader will naturally and properly look for them. Thus, every article on a state or territory has the population by counties, and also the new statistics on agricultural products, minerals, education, finances, banking,
etc. Every article on a city or village in our country has received its new census figures, and the articles on one hundred and twenty-five cities have been thoroughly revised and rewritten, each by some person in the city named. A similar revision is evident in the articles on foreign countries and especially have the statistics of the British census, industrial as well as vital, so far as they have been compiled and issued, been inserted in these articles. The articles on South Africa, China, Cuba, and the Philippines have all been brought up-to-date, which required practically a re-writing.

This is the only general Cyclopadia, made in this country and now in print, produced by an organized body of scholars, writers and literateurs, each selected with his special fitness and acquaintance with the subject assigned to him, and it treats more than 70,000 subjects, while more than 30,000 of the articles are signed by their authors. On controverted subjects it gives both views, furnished by acknowledged authorities; and in this respect it stands alone.

COMING FEAST

beef and pork and added to this is the fact that most of the stock that has arrived up to this time is of ordinary quality only.

Unless the consumer is willing to pay top prices for the finest stock he will be compelled to purchase two birds in order to get anything like a meal. For the best grades 12 1/2 to 14 cents a pound is the retail price.
The poorer grades may be had for 10 and 11 cents a pound, but there is little inquiry for this stock. Ducks appear to be taking the place of turkeys to a considerable degree, but prices are no lower than for choice turkeys.

Poor crops in the west and southwest are said to be responsible for the prevailing high price of foods, as it is said the first advance has invariably been on the raw material.

FATAL FIGHT OVER A GIRL.

Jealous Youth at Pana, Ill. Shoots a Rival in the Head.

Pana, Ill., Nov. 23.—Joan Hines invited Elmer Dannenbarger to accompany him on a buggy ride, and when they were alone shot his guest in the head, producing a fatal wound. The young men were rivals for the affections of the same girl, and Dannen-barger seemed to be gaining a lead in the race. Revival services had been in progress at Pleasant Valley church, near this city, and Dannenbarger and the girl have been attending. Hines drove up to the church, sent in a message to Dannenbarger to come out and then invited him to get in the buggy and talk it over. After proceeding a quarter of a mile the shot was fired. Dannenbarger is dying, and Hines is under arrest.

insurgents can resist any attack by

CABALLOS HAS 1,000 MEN

Fillipino Insurgent Contemplating
an Attack on Mauban.

AN OFFICER IS CAPTURED.

No Wholesale Surrenders on the Island of Samar—Captured Filipinos Show Evidence of Suffering and Hunger—
Coasts Patrolled by Gunboats.

Manila, Nov. 23.—It has been officially reported to General Chaffee that the insurgent leader Caballos has 1,000 fully armed men, including a number of American negroes, under his command in Laguna province, Luzon. An insurgent officer has just been captured, carrying papers dated Mauban, Laguna province, Nov. 18, and signed by Caballos. The prisoner admits that Caballos has 1,000 men with him and contemplated attacking Mauban. This probably accounts for the fact that yesterday the telegraph lines were cut near Mauban and in several places the supporting poles were found to have been removed. News received here from the island of Samar is encouraging, although up to the present time there have been no wholesale surrenders of natives. The Filipinos captured there, by our troops show evidence of suffering and hunger. The coasts of the islands are closely patrolled by gunboats and the use of the searchlight makes it almost impossible for the natives to land food on the island for the insurgents. The patrolling gunboats have captured over $20,000 in cash, and $100,000 worth of hemp upon which a tax had been paid to the insurgents has been confiscated.
The system of taxation and the collection of taxes maintained by the insurgent leader Lubkan were perfect and exhaustive in every particular and produced revenue from births, marriages, deaths, cock fights, and from the fish ponds of Samar. Hemp was the most important feature of commerce. Two per cent of its price was given to the local presidentes, who collected the majority of the island's revenue from those natives who had sworn allegiance to the United States, and turned it over to the rebel authorities. Smallpox is raging in the southern islands of the archipelago.
The United States Philippine commission is preparing an act to compel everybody to be vaccinated.

£170,000 by a Bookkeeper.

Liverpool, Nov. 23.—It has been announced that the Bank of Liverpool has been robbed of £170,000 by a faulter has been obtained by the authorities and for the purpose of assisting the detectives in apprehending the thief the bank refuses to make public the name of the shrewd but dishonest employee.

the sum has been nearly doubled."

Scientist Loses His Cow.

New York, Nov. 23.—Tuberculosis experiments by Dr. George D. Barney of Brooklyn, which aroused indignation when he announced recently that he had inoculated a young woman with the disease, were brought to a sudden close by Dr. Robert A. Black, head of the Brooklyn board of health,
who seized the cow on which Dr. Barney had experimented.

Teller Is Indicted.

New York, Nov. 23.—Kings county grand jury returned an indictment today against George Zollinger, the teller of the Williamsburg Savings bank, who confessed that he and a fellow employee robbed the institution of $60,000.

Mail Burned in Wreck.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—The entire mail on both trains, in the disastrous wreck at Needles, Cal., on the Santa Fe road, was destroyed by fire. Some thirty thousand letters for the East were burned.

Cyclist Killed by a Train.

Canton, O., Nov. 23.—Henry A. Meza, a tinner, aged 45, was instantly killed
by a Cleveland Terminal and Valley passenger train yesterday. He was riding a bicycle and was run down at a grade crossing.

Seeks to Reduce Interest.

New York, Nov. 23.—A movement is on foot among the great 4-per-cent savings banks of this city to reduce their rate of dividend to depositors after Jan. 1 to 3 1/2 per cent.

"I Followed Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Now I am Well."

Doctors Mystified.

A woman is sick; some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds something back, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and thus completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it any wonder, therefore, that the doctor fails to cure the disease? Still, we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician. It was for this reason that years ago Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., determined to step in and help her sex. Having had considerable experience in treating female ills with her Vegetable Compound, she encouraged the women of America to write to her for advice in regard to their complaints, and being a woman, it was easy for her ailing sisters to pour into her ears every detail of their suffering.

In this way she was able to do for them what the physicians were unable to do, simply because she had the proper information to work upon, and from the little group of women who sought her advice years ago, a great army of her fellow-beings are to day constantly applying for advice and relief, and the fact that more than one hundred thousand of them have been successfully treated by Mrs.
Pinkham during the last year is indicative of the grand results which are produced by her unequalled experience and training.

No physician in the world has had such a training, or has such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills, from the simplest local irritation to the most complicated diseases of the womb.

This, therefore, is the reason why Mrs. Pinkham, in her laboratory at Lynn, Mass., is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own suffering who will not take the trouble to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing
from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Grateful Letters from Cured Women.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been thankful a thousand times since I wrote to you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I followed your advice carefully and now I feel like a different person.

"My troubles were backache, headache,
nervous tired feeling, painful menstruation,
and leucorrhoea. I took four bottles of Vegetable Compound, one box of Liver Pills, and used one package of Sanative Wash, and am now well.

"I thank you again for the good you have done me."—ELLA E. BRENNER, East Rochester, Ohio.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I wrote to you some time ago for advice, I really thought my days were numbered. I was so ill that I could not stand on my feet for fifteen minutes at a time.

"I had female troubles in many of their worst forms, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, leucorrhoea, bearing-down pains, headache, backache, and nervous prostration. My kidneys were out of order and blood in a bad condition. Every one, and even my doctor, thought I was going into consumption. I commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and followed your advice faithfully for six months, with the result that I became a well woman, and it did not cost me nearly as much as a doctor's bill for the same number of weeks. I feel that your medicine saved my life."—MRS. SAMUEL BORST, 7 Cozy Ave., Oneonta, N. Y.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel that words are but feeble to express a heart's gratitude, when there is so much to be thankful for as I have.
I suffered with womb trouble for five years, and our family physician said an operation was needed; but I dreaded it, and reading of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound one day, I decided to give it a trial first. To my great joy I found that after four months' treatment I was strong and well; experienced no pain or trouble, and the Compound built up my entire system. I shall always bless the day I started to take your medicine; it proved my greatest good."—MISS SOPHIE BONHAM, 281 Oak St., Chicago, Ill.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I want to tell you what your medicine has done for me. I believe it saved my life. I had womb trouble and inflammation of the ovaries, and was troubled with flowing too much. I had two doctors, but they did me no good. After writing to you, I began the use of your remedies, and to-day I am well. I cannot say enough in your favor and shall always praise your Vegetable Compound."—MRS.
FRED. LEO, Box 520, Skowhegan, Maine.

December 28, 1899.
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel that it is my duty to write and tell you of the benefit I have derived from the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wrote to you last June and described my sufferings.

"I took seven bottles of your medicine and was cured of my troubles. Last September I was taken with a very bad kidney trouble. I was away from home and was obliged to return. I started to take your medicine again and was soon well.

"When I wrote to you last summer I weighed only one hundred and five. I now weigh one hundred and thirteen. I am very grateful to you for the good advice you gave me, and would recommend your medicine to all who suffer from female weakness."—MRS. E. CUNNINGHAM, Oakland, Ill.

$5000 REWARD

Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time questioned the genuineness of the testimonials we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank, of Lynn, Mass., $5,000, which will be paid to any person who will show that the above testimonials are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writers' special permission.—LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., Lynn, Mass.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

THE BATTLE OF LIFE

A well dressed man came out of Wall street, one cold December evening, and starting up Broadway was engaged in thought, that his entire attention was occupied. He stopped for a moment at a corner and with clenched fist and blanched face, was heard to say in a voice of despair, "My God! it's awful."

A friend who was passing laid a kindly hand on his shoulder and said, "What's the matter John, you look and not like a crazy man."

"Well, I have reason to be," was the fierce reply. "The savings of a lifetime are gone in a single day, and at my time of life it's enough to drive a man insane. The battle of life is no joke for a young man full of energy and ambition, but what show do I stand at 60?"

Another tragedy in the drama of life where blasted hopes are sacrificed. The successes of Wall street, like all other successes, are duly recorded, and the names of the winners are heralded over the country, and held up to public view as models for our young men to copy and imitate, but the failures are never mentioned outside the circle of interested parties.

Life is a battle field in every department, and failure is more common than success.

The soil is planted with good seed that take root and the tender shoots struggle up toward the sunlight, but an enemy sowed tares, and the command, victory is won long before the frail plant has had time to gather strength for the fray. If unaided and left for nature to decide the noxious weed crowds out the useful cereal, and victor is won long before the time of harvest.

A flock of sparrows light on the lawn in quest of a morning's meal, and it is soon apparent that they are fighters from principle. They fight in pairs and in triplets. While they doubtless believe that an All Wise Creator does not lose sight of His sparrows, they have discovered that they are expected to board themselves, and if the table is scant and supplies limited, they adopt the theory so common to human nature of looking out for number one, and fighting for supremacy, at the slightest provocation. The sparrow that wins lives to tell the story and comes back tomorrow, but no one thinks of the bird that was defeated.

And so all through the vegetable and animal kingdom, the warfare is waged. There is no civil service, except as the hand of man interferes, to nourish and protect the weak. "To the victor belong the spoils" is the watchword, and it is observed without hindrance, so far as nature is concerned.

The survival of the fittest is the only law that governs on the battle-field, where nature reigns supreme.

When this battle field of life is transferred to humanity, it assumes a more serious aspect, and seems to be more intensely real.

From the cradle to the grave is not so long a stride, at the longest, and yet to the man or woman who is permitted to live out allotted time, the conflict is more than a pastime.

The boy with a trade, or profession, or any other calling, is not long in discovering that he has no corner on ability or knowledge. He finds that every channel is crowded with young men, his equal in every respect. If he wins in this field of sharp and practical competition, it will be by dogged perseverance and untiring energy. If he falters by the way, the procession moves on and when he drops out of the ranks there is no perceptible vacancy.

The girl who imagines that she is the embodiment of culture or that her ability in music, art, or teaching, is so rare that the world will meet her with a smile, and a hearty welcome, soon discovers that there are others and that the supply is almost every department of life is far in excess of the demand.

If she is looking for a husband, with the same spirit of critical egotism, she will be still looking through glasses, after she is obliged to wear them for falling sight.

The man in business thinks he has a corner on trade. He may occupy the best business corner in his town, and fill his store with an attractive line of goods. He has courteous salesmen and is attentive to business, but about the time he is ready to make money, some enterprising fellow who has been watching him concludes to give him a whirl with competition. He possesses the faculty of making people believe he is a bargain giver, and by liberal advertising he opens a fight to build up his own business and succeeds.

No law is violated while he makes inroads on his competitor's trade and if he finally drives him out of business, he simply gains the reputation of being a shrewd manager, and a successful business man. This kind of rivalry is going on all the time and the men who survive to tell the story are the only ones who attract attention.

The professional man hangs out his shingle and sits around in his office day after day well equipped to dispense law or medicine. His neighbor across the way, gets out among people and becomes acquainted, winning their confidence and patronage. One wins, the other fails, on the same battle field. The winner goes to the front and gains recognition, the other remains in the rear, where the ranks are so crowded that his presence fails to excite interest.

The man in the shop has an ambition to be superintendent. He is no more skillful as a workman than fifty other men about him, but he takes an active interest in the business, and works for its success as though he owned it, fighting his way to the front until he gains the coveted prize. He doesn't know much about labor unions or strikes, has a little account at the bank, is saving without being stingy, and in the struggle unconsciously becomes a capitalist. He is a winner in the conflict.

And so, in every department of toil the battle is raging. The competition may be friendly, or it may be subtle and unrelenting. The spoils come to the victor and few questions are asked.

There is another battle field where the relations are closer, and where the victor and vanquished are of more vital importance, and that is the realm of the human heart.

The warfare on this field of carnage dates from the age of responsibility, and continues to the verge of time. On one side is arrayed the hosts of good, on the other the forces of evil. The victories won by either side are not always decisive, because the human will which is stronger than the opposing forces, is the birthright of the individual life, and the domain is so sacred, that it may not be taken or held by force.

This battle ground, unlike any other is not a test of physical or mental strength. It may be cultured and refined, or it may be uncouth and unattractive.

The prize for which the forces are contending in every case is a human soul, and the value is not measured by comparison.

These conditions are true because the span of eternity is measureless and class distinctions are not recognized. It were well for humanity if the will to do right would recognize the forces that are always at hand to encourage every purpose, and strengthen every bulwark from attacks of foes both from without and within.

The greatest battle field of life is the human heart and will, and the most signal victory, possible to every life is the victory over self.

HIDES AND LEATHER

The Free Hide League, of Chicago is sending out a series of articles for publication in which the claim is made that reciprocity with South American countries, the great hide producing center, would be detrimental to the home industry. The statement lacks the force of argument and is not reasonable.

The League claims that hides were admitted duty free, for twenty-five years previous to 1897, when at the behest of a few populist senators a duty of 15 per cent. was established. A demand is made that they should be restored to the free list.

The principles of reciprocity would accomplish just what the League is asking for. If concessions are granted to South America on products that we are obliged to import, a fair exchange means the granting of similar concessions on goods that they import from us. That is encouraging friendly trade relations and that is reciprocity.

There is no good reason why hides should pay a duty. In fact there is every reason why they should not. American leather has won its way to the front until many grades are today without rival. The German shoemakers of Berlin, turn down the old-time famous German calf skin, and uses American brands in preference. With free hides and the encouragement that the industries needs this country may be made the leading leather market of the world. Reciprocity will stimulate the business, and the League can hardly afford to oppose it.

The Dowle family is having troubles of its own. The brother-in-law of the prophet is not much of a Zion shouter, and is foolish enough to think that he has some property rights that the Elder should respect. Differences of opinion have led to a law suit, and the court will be asked to decide whether the modern Elijah is possessed of Divine rights in the daily transaction of business. Prophecies are not always exempt from trouble.

Whether the governor will travel by bicycle, automobile, freight or an ordinary John Strange job lot train when he makes a tour of the state has not been announced. The Bridgeport flying machine factory is in full operation and their vehicles will be on the market early next spring. If A. R. Hall is prevented from distributing the atmosphere they will be a lawful means of transportation at any rate that Strange may be able to furnish.

PRESS COMMENT

Oshkosh Northwestern: A brother-in-law of the "Prophet Elijah" Dowle has applied for a receiver for the lace industry at Zion City, also asking for a dissolution of partnership and making charges of fraud against Dowle. Even the saints seem to have their troubles.

Delavan Republican: Congressman H. A. Cooper and wife will shortly arrive home from Europe, after visiting at Burlington and Racine will take up their residence at Washington in time for the opening of the 57th congress.

Lake Mills Leader: Japan has been testing American and English locomotives and has decided that the American are the best, and will make their purchase here. American skill and protection tells the story.

Whitewater Register: Anyone failing to locate $28.52 in his clothing or on the premises may safely assume that he has not the per capita amount of actual money in the country according to the treasury department.

Milwaukee Sentinel: And now the Democrats charge Republican managers with circulating those 75,000 copies of the Commoner in Ohio.

Marquette Eagle: A bed of "live asphalt" has been found near Escanaba. The unscientific reader may wonder that anything alive stayed so far north.

Rice Lake Leader: With their dictatorial ideas of their own importance, an island in the Mississippi near LaCrosse would make about a proper domain for Governor LaFollette and his man Murphy. And then peace would hold a round-up of Wisconsin Republicans.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: Wisconsin won new honors Saturday in the championship contest with Minnesota on Randall field and joy reigns unconfined among all loyal Badgers. Wisconsin's place is at the head whether the contest be in business matters or sports.

Madison Democrat: A man out in Oklahoma killed a fellow citizen with his bare fist. Football players prefer to poke a knee through the spine.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: The Bulgarian brigands seem about as difficult to transact business with as Pat Crowe. Their latest bulletin is to the effect that they must be granted amnesty before Miss Stone is released. When this condition has been granted they are like the elusive Pat Crowe, will doubtless be ready to make a new stipulation.

Racine Journal: A number of pensioners who uttered sentiments favorable to President McKinley's assassination should have their pensions revoked by congress. One of these is Dr. Mary Walker who has worn man's attire for several years.

Eau Claire Leader: A clergyman preaching to the convicts at Waupun recently, expressed gratification at seeing so many present, and hoped that on his next visit that the congregation would be larger.

Merrill Advocate: The New York Tribune in a cartoon, suggests that hunters be encased in armor plate, and that signs be laced on the cattle to the effect that they are only domestic animals.

Much favorable comment has been aroused throughout the country by the arrangement of the national billiard tourney to be held in Madison Square Garden, New York, Dec. 2. Cue experts and patrons of the clicking ivory from almost every state in the Union will be on hand to participate in and view the great contest.

America has had no undisputed billiard champion since the days of Frank C. Ives, whose death a couple of years ago removed one of the most brilliant and popular men who ever scored a button. Jacob Schaefer and George Slosson have fought and refought their battles on the green cloth almost three-score times, and the patient, long suffering public is glad that other men will have a part in striving for the title. Monopoly is detrimental in the world of sport, as much so as in commercial and financial affairs, and if an "outsider" or an "unknown" succeeds in carrying off first honors in the national tourney billiards will be decidedly benefited.

McLaughlin, the New York expert, is sure to be a factor in the contest, as also is Ora Morningstar, the young man who has performed splendidly during the last two years. The Knickerbocker Athletic club of New York has several able billiardists on its rolls, and it is said that the organization will be represented.

Willie Hoppe, the wonderful boy billiardist, has been doing some sensational "stunts" of late. He has defeated many of New York's best players, a feat that appears all the more remarkable

WILLIE HOPPE, THE BOY BILLIARDIST, able when it is remembered that the sixteen-year-old "phenom," by reason of his small stature, is compelled to kneel on the table to execute most of his shots.

Willie Hoppe comes of a family of prominent cue welders. His father, Frank Hoppe, was a champion when in his prime, and the boy's mother is at present a dangerous competitor for any man in the country. The Hoppe family comes from a small town in New York, on the Hudson river.

C. H. Maloney, captain of the University of Chicago track team, is now getting his men into form for winter games. His return to college this year was hailed with delight by the Windy City students, and Maloney anticipates another successful year of athletic work.

Maloney is one of the ablest track performers in the west. His running has been the feature of many athletic contests. He claims to be in better condition than ever before and expects to give certain records a "close call" when once he rounds into top notch form.

The report that Jimmy Michael, the "Welsh rabbit," will again forsake the cycle path for horse racing is not received with much credit by those who remember the midge's flat failure as a jockey in his last attempt.

Michael not only lost a great deal of time, but it cut a large figure from his bank roll, and it was some time before he got back into good enough form to successfully cope with some of the fliers who developed during the past two seasons.

Michael has been doing remarkably well in the cycle racing line, and he will fare much better by sticking to his best line of work than if he tries to win fame and fortune on the bangtalls, which means many long months of training, studying and real hard physical labor.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy, for it contains no opium, or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. The Sign of Health

Dizziness and headaches cannot be cured in any other manner than by getting at the root of the trouble and curing the cause.

The cause is almost invariably a disordered digestive system, or else a bad stomach and clogged bowels are responsible. Laxakola, the great Tonic Laxative, is an unfailing cure.

It works gently and painlessly and at the same time acts as a tonic to the bowels, stomach, liver and kidneys and builds up the system instead of weakening and irritating it as other laxatives do.

Its remarkable properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure. Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine.

It tastes good. Children like it and ask for it.

LAXAKOLA FOR WOMEN. It is a gentle and safe remedy to use during all conditions of health of the gentler sex whenever their peculiar and delicate constitutions require a mild and efficient laxative and tonic, and is invaluable in assisting to relieve obstructions which otherwise would lead to more or less severe pain or illness. It improves the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, quickens the circulation, removes muddy and blotched condition of the skin and cures sick headaches too certainly by removing the cause. To women suffering from chronic constipation, headaches, biliousness, dizziness, sallowness of the skin and dyspepsia, Laxakola will invariably bring relief. At druggists, etc., and send for free sample to THE LAXAKOLA CO., 131 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 356 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

SACRED CONCERT GIVEN LAST NIGHT

An Artistic Musical Success at the Presbyterian Church.—Good Crowd in Attendance.

The sacred concert given at the Presbyterian church last evening under the direction of Mrs. John Fuller Sweeney, the organist of the church, was an artistic musical success such as is seldom heard in the city. In spite of the inclemency of the weather there was a fair sized audience of music lovers. Mrs. Sweeney opened the program with an exquisite double number on the organ, "Prelude, C. Sharp Minor" by Bachmanoff and "Entr'acte Gavotte de Mignon" by Ambrose Thomas. In both the delicacy of her art and the faultlessness of her execution were charmingly displayed. Mrs. Sweeney presided at the organ during the entire evening playing all of the accompaniments. She was ably assisted in several of the numbers by Miss Mae Treat at the piano, Miss Treat playing faultlessly and brilliantly.

A large and excellent chorus gave two splendid and inspiring numbers, "In Heavenly Home Abiding" by Horatio Parker and "King All Glorious" by Barnby, with which the concert closed. In the first song chorus Miss Elizabeth Abbott sang the solo part, her sweet, finely cultivated voice being especially pleasing and the latter chorus was made especially effective by the tenor and baritone solos of William Garbutt and Leonard Mathews.

Especially delightful was the instrumental quartet, "La Cigale Madrilene" by Alfred Cottin, played by the Misses Soverhill with Miss Mabel Woodbury at the piano. The talented young musicians were compelled to respond to an encore and delighted the audience with "My Old Kentucky Home." Later on the program little Wilma Soverhill played with expressive feeling and delicate execution Dancels' "Fifth Air Vair Op. 89" on the violin.

Mrs. John G. Rexford gave two exquisite vocal solos on the program "With Verdure Clad" from Hayden's "Creation" and "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan. Her melodious voice which she uses so easily and so delightfully completely captivated the audience and after each number she was compelled to bow her acknowledgment of the insistent applause.

One of the finest vocal solos was given by Leonard Mathews, his magnificent baritone voice being heard effectively in "The Day is Ended" by J. C. Bartlett. The beauty of the selection was enhanced by the violin obbligato, artistically played by Oscar Halverson.

The boys' choir of the Presbyterian church sang a sacred song very prettily and merited the hearty applause with which they were greeted. The piano and organ duet by Mrs. W. T. Sherrill and Mrs. Sweeney was a musical gem. These two ladies are acknowledged to be the leading pianists of the city while Mrs. Sweeney is certainly the leading organist. They played Rubenstein's exquisite composition "Kammenoi Ostrow" in a most artistic manner.

One of the rather unique features of the program was a series of selections from Alfred Gaul's "Holy City" and it made a very fine number. The series opened with a ladie's quartet "No Shadows Yonder" in which the melodious voices of Mesdames John G. Rexford, C. F. Yates, C. S. Putnam and S. B. Lewis blended harmoniously and William Garbutt sang the tenor solo with fine taste and voice. This was followed by a ladies' trio given beautifully by Mesdames Rexford, Lewis and Yates without accompaniment, after which Mrs. Lewis sang the contralto solo "Eye Hath Not Seen" in a manner that won her a perfect storm of applause.

The next selection in the series was an instrumental one "Adoration" played by Oscar Halverson, violin; Miss Treat, piano; Mrs. Sweeney, organ. It was one of the most delightful numbers on the program and the audience went into raptures over it, insisting on an encore until a portion of the selection was repeated. The series closed with the ladies' quartet "List the Cherubic Host" with baritone solo by Leonard Mathews. Myron F. Barnes, of Rockford, who was to have appeared on the program was unable to be present on account of a severe cold.

The Coming of Ernest Seton Thompson Awaited With Interest

The coming of Ernest Seton Thompson to Janesville next week is a matter which calls for more than ordinary notice. Mr. Thompson is a man whose books are read the wide world over and as a writer and lecturer on wild animals has no peer. It is seldom that our people have an opportunity to hear and see such a man. The management of the People's Lecture course are deserving of the thanks of every parent for arranging for the Matinee in the afternoon of next Tuesday and placing the price of admission as low as they have. The time of the matinee is such that it will not interfere with school at all and scholars can go right from school. The afternoon lecture on "Personality of Wild Animals" will be illustrated just as elaborately as the evening one on "Wild Animals I have Known" and is arranged for the sole purpose of giving the children and those who could not go in the evening a chance to hear Mr. Thompson and see his pictures. As a matter of fact the experience has been that as many adults go in the afternoon as in the evening and plans are being made to accommodate everybody and extra seats will be provided for both entertainments. Delegations from Beloit, Evansville and other places near have sent in for seats.

The Kings Daughters of the Baptist church will meet Monday at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. Geo. M. Hubbell, at 105 Center street, to plan for their fair.

COMPLETE DIFFICULT CONTRACT

E. T. Fish Places an Eighteen Ton Boiler in Position

The largest boiler ever shipped to this city was placed in position this week at the factory of the Janesville Barb Wire Works. The boiler weighed a total of eighteen tons and to place this ponderous weight in position was no small undertaking. E. T. Fish of this city was awarded the contract to move the boiler from the cars into the factory and place it on its bed of specially constructed stone foundation. Several skilled workmen were engaged in assisting as well as nearly a car of moving material. With apparent ease, as if it had been a dry goods box, Mr. Fish and his men carried out their part of the contract. But few moving firms in this part of the state would undertake such a task. Mr. Fish also moved and placed in position a sixty foot smoke stack for the Janesville Barb Wire Works.

"The Smith"

A mighty man is he," but he is not mighty enough to defy disease. It is a pitiful thing to see the strong man brought low, his muscles melting away until he can no more swing the heavy sledge to shape the glowing iron.

"I was troubled with malarial fever of about three years' standing and was under doctors' care for quite a time," writes Mr. J. E. Kidd, of Pardeysville, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and my suffering was very great. My pulse was very weak, breath short and I had severe pains in the back and legs. Had palpitation of heart, and from June 1st, 1894, to May 1st, 1895, I was not able to do a day's work. I purchased five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had finished taking the first two bottles I was very much better. I continued taking the medicine, and by the time the fifth bottle was gone I was a well man."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cleanses the blood of the poisons which feed disease, cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the proper assimilation of food. It is a flesh forming, muscle making medicine, making sound flesh and not flabby fat. It contains no whisky nor alcohol in any form.

HOW THEY COMPARE

Political Conditions in the Badger State and New York as Seen by F. J. Wildner.

Superior Telegram: The State, a newspaper published at Madison, which attained some notoriety several years ago by reason of its violent persecution of Governor Scofield, undertakes to parallel the political conditions in Wisconsin with those in the city of New York, which have recently led to the election of Seth Low as mayor, in the following refreshing manner:

"Seth Low's record shows that he is a factionist, according to Henry Fink's definition. However, he was elected because he stood for purity in municipal affairs in general. If he has made of the stuff the people who elected him he is, he will also be a dictator, according to Mr. Fink's idea for he will want to carry out the pledges he made the people. If Mayor Low makes or even suggests any changes in the now thoroughly rotten municipal machinery of New York, he will come under Collector Fink's definition of a populist."

The cool boldness of this attempt to make white appear black would reflect credit upon a Chinese politician of the craftiness of the late Li Hung Chang. The rapacious rule of Tammany in New York, under the direction of the notorious Croker, has been carried to a point where it could not longer be endured.

For the enrichment of the Tammany crowd every department of the municipal government, every individual official who owed his election to the corrupt organization, and every vice was laid under tribute. Against this lawless and corrupt condition of things the public conscience at last revolted, with the determination to crush the reign of crime. To this end the better element of New York co-operated with a single purpose that could not fail to revive confidence in popular government and assure success. In that crisis representatives of the law-abiding people of all classes and interests met in conference and chose Seth Low to lead in the cause of good government. He responded to the call of his fellow-citizens as a matter of patriotic duty and thus strikingly exemplified the difference between a true reformer and the mere self-seeking pretender. He had not spent ten years in organizing a personal following for the purpose of securing him the nomination of mayor of New York under various pretenses. A man of the character of Seth Low need not, and does not, resort to the schemes of the crafty politician to attract attention, to find recognition. The highest political honors would not tempt him to descend to the level of the demagogue and appeal to the prejudices of "God's patient poor."

Seth Low does indeed "stand for purity in municipal affairs and in politics in general." He has shown his capacity for municipal government as the mayor of Brooklyn several years ago. He can be relied upon to inaugurate the reforms the municipal government of New York stands in need of. But in so doing he will be guided solely by the public interest, free from all personal politics. He will not retire into seclusion to formulate a reform scheme, with a view to the advancement of his personal ambition, and submit it to the people of New York with the ultimatum that they must take this kind of reform, or no reform at all.

Great men like Seth Low appreciate the fact that no single man is the repository of all wisdom. Mayor Low will doubtless find differences of opinion among the people who elected him as the best means to bring about the desired reforms. It is safe to predict that he will treat these divergent opinions with the consideration they deserve, and without threatening anybody with political death for disagreeing with him. He will thus succeed in establishing reforms which will have the approbation of all fair-minded and law-abiding people.

The attempt to draw a comparison between the Republican party in this state at the present time and the municipal conditions of the city of New York is slanderous, and the attempt to compare the Mayor Low party in New York with the party of the party of the present governor of Wisconsin can only provoke mirth.

A Lily of France
"A Lily of France" is the suggestive title of a historical romance of the 16th century by Caroline Atwater Mason, issued by the Griffith & Rowland Press, of Philadelphia. The scene is laid in Holland and France in the middle of the sixteenth century. The principal characters are Charlotte de Bourbon and William of Orange, the Deliverer of the Netherlands. The story of Charlotte who, tho' a French princess, became the wife of the Dutch hero, has never been told as it is here brought to light. A visit to Holland has enabled Mrs. Mason to search the original documents and secure the local color. It is a story of intense dramatic interest and great historical value.

The book is a revelation of the early methods of printing as conducted in Holland when the Bible was under a ban. The struggles of the Hugonots against the machinations of the Catholic party in France under the notorious regent, Catherine de Medici; the Massacre of St. Bartholomew; the bloody campaign of the ferocious duke of Alva are all portrayed in vivid colors and the story is followed with unabated interest by the reader. The life of the princess in a cloister is a new story full of character and experience. The schemes and plots of a dissolute priesthood are handled deftly and with discretion. It is a book full of information and carries a love story of rare beauty. It is for sale in Janesville by James Sutherland & Sons.

Hanson, of 103 Pleasant St., engineer, employed at the Janesville Machine Co., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me all the good that could be expected and I recommend them to any one who may be troubled with a lame back or any kidney disorder. After procuring them at the People's drug store and taking them I felt better, my back did not ache like it did, and I did not rise in the morning with a lame and sore back. I suffered from these symptoms for four or five years and I was more than pleased at the results obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Banner Rural Mail Route

The banner rural mail route of the state runs out of Janesville and is known as route No. 1. It leaves Janesville by the Mineral Point road and runs to Fishers corners beyond Center from there it runs north to the Evansville road, thence west to the Rock River house and from there south along the river to the city. It is stated that more mail is handled on this route than on any rural route in the state. From this it would seem that the people of Rock county appreciate the system of rural delivery and are taking advantage of it.
